About This Game

This casual game is intended to be simple to play and easy to understand. It's supposed to have the feel of a 90s hand-held game console on your PC. This game is a game where you pick an egg, hatch it, raise the creature to maturity to access the Fauna Files: a detailed description of the creature you have unlocked. It was developed by one person with the help of other parties in graphics and sound using Game Maker Studios 2.

Features:

- Hatch eggs; raise creatures to maturity by feeding, playing and disciplining them

- Select up to 8 different UI colors

- 5 different elements with 3 eggs for each element

- 5 unlockable eggs

- 15 achievements and "Fauna Files"

This is a game?? It must be kidding me. Just press the buttons and forcus on the bar on the screen. I would never play such a stupid boring thing even if I were 3 years old.

It is my first time to apply a refund on Steam. I just wanted to find something about Digimon in memory of my childhood. Disappoint.. This is a game?? It must be kidding me.
